under the law, documents in the University's possession are subject to review by any member of the public. One exception to this general rule is for trade secrets. Trade secrets are not subject to disclosure under an IPRA request. New Mexico law defines a "trade secret" at NMSA Sec. 57-3A-2. Please review the definition (or have your company attorney do so) and explain how the pages that you have marked as "Confidential" fall within New Mexico's definition of a trade secret.

The UNMHSC will recognize as confidential only those elements in each response, which are readily separable from the proposal into its own section and which are clearly marked as "CONFIDENTIAL" or "PROPRIETARY" in order to facilitate eventual public inspection of the non-confidential portion of the proposal. PLEASE NOTE: The price of products offered or the cost of services proposed shall not be designated as proprietary or confidential information.

UNMHSC will ignore markings of "CONFIDENTIAL" on proposal cover sheets or on every page. Vague designations and blanket statements regarding entire pages or documents are insufficient and shall not bind the UNMHSC to protect the designated matter from disclosure. Do not mark your cover page confidential. Do not put the word "confidential" on every page. Do not identify pricing as confidential.

If you identify any portions of our proposal as confidential or as a trade secret, you agree, by submitting your proposal, that UNMHSC's sole obligation in connection with an IPRA request relating to your proposal is to provide you with notice of the IPRA request so that you may seek relief as you may deem appropriate. UNMHSC reserves the right to reject any proposal not in compliance with this paragraph.

The UNMHSC shall not in any way be liable or responsible for the disclosure of any records if they are not plainly marked "CONFIDENTIAL" or "PROPRIETARY" or if disclosure is required by law, regulation, subpoena, order of the court or other legal requirements that purports to compel disclosure, including without limitation, the IPRA.

If prompt payment discounts apply to any resultant Agreement, any discount time will not begin until the materials, supplies, or services have been received and accepted and a correct invoice has been received by the UNMHSC's Accounts Payable Department. Offeror agrees to comply with all such laws, regulations and orders as currently in effect or hereafter amended. 3.16 Equal Opportunity and Affirmative Action. In performing or providing the services and goods required under a resultant Agreement, each party shall be an equal opportunity employer and shall conform to all affirmative action and other applicable requirements; accordingly, each party shall neither discriminate nor permit discrimination in its operations or employment practices against any person or group of persons on the basis of race, age, religion, color, national origin, ancestry, sex, physical or mental handicap or medical condition, sexual preference, prior military involvement or any other manner prohibited by law.

If exceptions or deviations are not clearly stated, it is understood that the terms and conditions of this proposal shall govern.

3.22 Indemnification and Insurance. Offeror assumes the entire responsibility and liability for losses, expenses, damages, demands and claims in connection with or arising out of any actual or alleged personal injury (including death) and/or damage or destruction to property sustained or alleged to have been sustained in connection with or arising out of the goods delivered by Offeror or the performance of the work by Offeror its agents, employees, sub-contractors or consultants, except to the extent of liability arising out of the negligent performance of the work by or willful misconduct of the UNMHSC.
